

BROWN COUNTY UNMET NEEDS COMMITTEE

What is it?

A collaboration of Brown County organizations, churches, and agencies whose purpose is to ensure that all Brown County residents have access to the resources they need to provide stability during a crisis. The BC Unmet Needs Committee exists to compliment Brown County's existing social service system by compassionately responding to meet needs that are beyond the scope of existing resources.

Will provide financial assistance
for basic needs
such as

rent &
mortgage
payments

utility
payments

home & car
repairs

medicine &
medical care

Clients are expected to pursue assistance through all available public agencies before their need can be brought before the committee. The Committee will also provide resources for any needs that have arisen due to COVID-19.
